PURPOSE

This directory is intended to serve a variety of purposes. First and foremost, this directory is meant to be a resource to persons with special needs who are seeking local adult foster care services. Information provided in this directory is intended to promote an informed choice for individuals in need of licensed residential placements. The better the match between each person's specific needs and what the specific home is able to offer, the greater likelihood that the result will be a successful experience. A good fit for the individual also lends itself to the best possible outcome for the person. This directory may also assist family members and guardians as well as professionals who may be assisting to select a home site. One of the purposes of this directory is to allow home providers the opportunity to clearly identify home characteristics and any unique aspects of their home setting to aid the selection process.

INTRODUCTION

If you or someone you support and care about needs help with everyday living and you think that it's time to move into a supervised setting, this booklet is for you. Choosing a home setting may be a difficult task for an individual. We want to help you get through what we know can be a very confusing and challenging decision. When looking for a home, choices may be limited based on availability of beds within the homes being considered at the time of your need. Individuals have varied needs, and their personal preferences should be considered to find the most suitable home setting. Sometimes individuals looking for home sites may find themselves in a crisis in their lives at the time of this choice. For reference, the SCCMHA website is located at www.sccmha.org and the Customer Services Office can be reached at 989-797-3452 or 1-800-258-8678.

ABOUT THIS DIRECTORY

All current local licensed AFC providers in Saginaw County are included in this directory. Some are under contract with SCCMHA for additional specialized services. SCCMHA does contract with other licensed providers outside of Saginaw County as well, when needed. All licensed Saginaw County AFC providers were given the opportunity to give detailed information about their homes for this directory. If the provider did not give additional information, the public information made available by the State of Michigan was used. This directory may be revised on a regular basis to provide the most up-to-date information; new AFC homes open and some also close in Saginaw County on a routine basis, as well as other home changes which may occur. This directory was developed as a result of a suggestion from some of the consumers served by Saginaw County Community Mental Health Authority (SCCMHA). The first edition was published in August 2005, this is the fourth edition.

WHAT IS ADULT FOSTER CARE?

This booklet is about adult foster care (AFC). AFC homes are group homes where adults can receive services related to their personal care and community living needs. This includes room and board, supervision and other services in the person's plan of service. AFC homes can be as small as only one or two persons living with an AFC provider family, or, they could be larger and have staff working on shifts. AFC homes are required to have around-the-clock staff. They are licensed and monitored by the State of Michigan according to applicable statutes.

There are approximately 100 licensed adult foster care homes in Saginaw County at any given time. New homes may become licensed and open with available beds to consider. All of the AFC homes known to be licensed in Saginaw County at the time of this publication are included in this directory. Up-to-date information can be found at www.dleg.state.mi.us/brs_afc/sr_afc.asp.

SAGINAW COUNTY COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH AUTHORITY

Saginaw County Community Mental Health Authority (SCCMHA) is the local, public managed care provider of mental health services. We serve adults with serious mental illness, persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities, children with serious emotional disturbances and individuals with substance use disorders in Saginaw County. Services are provided through a network of service providers. We monitor the providers who we contract with by auditing them on a regular basis and conducting site visits. SCCMHA does not operate any residential homes directly, but does contract with many different licensed home sites to provide services for persons in need of this level of specialized residential care (beyond basic AFC services). Case managers and supports coordinators of SCCMHA often assist consumers or families in seeking AFC services. SCCMHA maintains a current list of all providers and a list of current vacancies with providers, both those who are specialized licensed residential contractors of SCCMHA and those with general AFC status.

PAYMENT FOR AFC HOMES

Payment for adult foster care services occurs in several ways. A person may privately pay for this service if he or she has the financial resources to do so. For persons with social security or supplemental security income (SSI) or other related benefits, a large portion of this monthly payment is used to pay for AFC costs. SCCMHA does enter into contracts directly with some AFC homes to provide "specialized residential services" for individuals served by SCCMHA who need this additional type of care. Some adult foster care facilities may also receive payments from the Michigan Department of Health & Human Services (MDHHS) for the care of adults who are also served by SCCMHA. These payments were formerly called "model payments" and are now called "Adult Services Authorized Payment (ASAP)".

STATE OF MICHIGAN LICENSING ROLE

Adult foster care homes are licensed by the State of Michigan through the Bureau of Regulatory Services, Department of Consumer & Industry Services (CIS) and the Michigan Department of Health & Human Services (MDHHS). Upon receipt by the state of an application for a home license, a licensing consultant is assigned to review the home's compliance with all necessary requirements. A written licensing report is prepared and if the home meets all requirements, a license is issued by the State of Michigan. There are several types of licenses that may be issued depending upon the size of the home and other factors. Assigned licensing consultants also review home operations on a regular basis, and respond to any licensing complaints about specific homes. Home administrators must maintain state standards to maintain licensure and licensed status, including ongoing training. There are also concurrent public health requirements for adult foster care sites. Information in this regard may be obtained from the State of Michigan at its website: www.michigan.gov. MDHHS has offered the following commentary on choosing an adult foster care home:

There are many types of adult foster care homes. Before making a decision, it is strongly recommended you visit the home, talk with the residents, consider the neighborhood and question the provider. Additional help in the selection process is available from your local Department of Human Services office, the DHS Office of Children and Adult Licensing, Community Mental Health Board, Michigan Department of Community Health, Michigan Rehabilitation Service, Citizens for Better Care and/or the local Office on Aging. It is important for you to clearly understand the services provided, cost of those services and how they will be funded.

RIGHTS & SCCMHA OVERSIGHT & MONITORING

According to licensing regulations of the State of Michigan, residents have certain protections. Rights are spelled out in a "Resident Rights for AFC Group Homes" summary provided by the State of Michigan. (This summary is included in this directory. See page 48.) When allegations of rights violations are reported that mutually concern the state and the local mental health system, state licensing consultants and local mental health Recipient Rights staff may work together to investigate and/or make recommendations relative to home provider performance. Both licensing consultants and SCCMHA monitor licensed homes and specialized residential services for persons who are placed and additionally funded by SCCMHA.

ADULT FOSTER CARE HOME REQUIREMENTS

SUMMARY FROM STATE OF MICHIGAN LICENSING RULES

This is a summary of the State of Michigan requirements that licensed AFC home providers are expected to meet.

- Provide personal care, protection and housing and food for residents.
- Treat residents with respect, courtesy, dignity and fairness.
- Maintain all licensing requirements of the State of Michigan.
- Provide nutritious meals and post menus.
- Staff is trained and competent, including knowledge of persons to be served.
- Meet physical, emotional and intellectual needs of each resident.
- Able to handle emergency situations appropriately.
- Assure welfare of the residents, including safety, privacy and protection from moral, social and financial exploitation.
- Sufficient staffing to meet the needs of residents.

- Safe and healthy facility environment, including temperature, space and egress.
- Complete background checks of staff before hiring.

SPECIALIZED RESIDENTIAL CARE

Licensing consultants certify adult foster care homes when certification for specialized residential services is requested; this certification of the home is required for SCCMHA funds through a specialized residential contract. When an AFC home receives certification for specialized residential services, SCCMHA may enter into a contract with the home when a person with this level of need is placed in the home. Specialized residential consumers must have a medically necessary level beyond general AFC supports. The rate of reimbursement depends upon the needs of the person, including added staffing to accommodate the individual needs. All persons receive some level of personal care assistance and community living supports based on their individual person-centered plan of service. SCCMHA has certain documentation and service requirements providers must meet to obtain a contract, be reimbursed and maintain contractual status with SCCMHA.

ADDITIONAL PROVIDER INFORMATION

There are many sources of potential provider information, including those listed in the MDHHS website summary included earlier. SCCMHA can assist with provider information as well; consumers or other community members should start by contacting the Customer Services Office at 989-797-3452 or 1-800-258-8678.

QUALITY OF LIFE & INDEPENDENT LIVING

Even in long-term care need situations, the goal of residential care is to promote self-sufficiency and independence as much as possible. If an individual is not able to move towards a goal of living independently outside of a licensed site, there should be goals towards greater independence within the AFC home. Whenever possible, providers should assist consumers towards self-sufficiency, ideally in more independent community settings. This is the goal and expectation of SCCMHA funded services. For some persons, adult foster care may be a short-term need; for others, it may necessitate long-term planning. Adult foster care settings are intended to provide supervision and supports to the residents 24 hours a day. While residing in a home setting, persons may arrange leaves of absence for certain needs. Usually residents of AFC homes can come and go as they please. However, when needed, some limits may need to be established on a resident's ability to leave the home. If this needs to happen, it must be addressed in the plan of service. When residents of an AFC home wish to leave the home for extended periods of time, they would need to go on a leave of absence. A leave of absence is defined as any time a person leaves a facility without the provider accompanying the person. It may be a plan to go with family or to go to a friend's house, and may be several hours or several days or more. Routine leaves of absence as defined in the individual's person-centered plan may be part of a plan to support the person developing more independent skills, and even eventually leaving the licensed setting to live on their own. Selecting a home and a provider is not just about finding a place to live. While each home setting should indeed be able to offer residents a real home life setting, it is important that each home offer each individual the best quality of life possible in a supervised setting. Where we live, whom we live with and how we spend our time in our homes is a very personal matter. Persons with disabilities are entitled to personal choices and preferences, even if they might need supervision and assistance to live in the community. Ultimately, the goal is for each person to live as independently as they are able to do so, given their personal needs, strengths and challenges. SCCMHA promotes and expects certain standards of quality of life in community settings for all persons, including those residing in licensed adult foster care homes.

HOW CAN I GET INTO AN ADULT FOSTER CARE HOME?

Staff from SCCMHA or the Michigan Department of Health & Human Services are very knowledgeable about AFC homes and what is needed to help you find a home. They can complete all the paperwork that is needed. But if you are using this booklet to find an AFC home on your own, you are free to contact any home directly and arrange a visit or agreement with the provider yourself. If you have a guardian or payee, that person should be involved and help you with your decisions.

HOW LONG CAN I STAY IN AN ADULT FOSTER CARE HOME?

Your stay in an AFC home is as long as you need it to be. AFC residents may stay weeks, months or years. However, if you have a case manager or supports coordinator, they will continue to ask you in Person-Centered Planning sessions if you are able and ready to return to living on your own. If you are ready, they will seek to help you get the services you need in order to do so.

HOW DO I CHOOSE A HOME?

Finding the right home for you will take some visiting. Remember: it's your choice, not your case manager's or your family's. But you will want to find the right home for your needs and preferences. In this booklet, we have included a list of questions that you might want to ask an AFC home provider.

WHAT IF I WANT TO MOVE TO A DIFFERENT HOME?

You are free to move to a different home anytime you feel you should. Sometimes people move because they find out the home doesn't meet their needs, or the other residents or staff are just the sort they can't get along with, or their needs change. Keep in mind, like any change, it might take time to adjust to see if the home will be for you.

How Do I Know Which Homes Might Be Best For Me?

You can ask AFC licensing staff by phone, on the Internet or you can ask a family member or professional who might be helping you. But the most important factors are your likes and dislikes and finding a good match. After finding a good match for you, the next part is pretty simple, it should be clean and safe, just like you would want in your own home. You should have someone who is attending to your special needs. You should feel welcome and at-home! People should treat you with respect and kindness and help you with your unique needs.

It's Your Choice!

You can make visits to homes and walk around and ask questions. Please know that you can tell the person who is helping you that you want to look at different homes until you find an available home that meets your needs.

OTHER AFC PROVIDERS/SCCMHA CONTRACTORS & SEMI-INDEPENDENT PLACEMENTS (SIPs)

In some limited situations, SCCMHA contracts with licensed providers or other community mental health programs in other counties to provide services for persons living outside of Saginaw County. SCCMHA also purchases some services for persons who live in semi-independent programs (SIPs). SIPs are not licensed settings.

SIPs provide supervision, but less than 24-hour daily supervised programs; individuals may live in their own housing or reside in provider housing and receive the level of supervision and supports appropriate for their needs. A complete and current provider directory is available from SCCMHA at www.sccmha.org which includes current SIP providers under contract with SCCMHA.

INDEPENDENT LIVING

A Word About Independent Living:

All adults are entitled to live as independently as possible. Whether the goal is to achieve greater independence within a licensed setting, or to move to a more independent environment in the future, a continued review of key areas of independence is helpful. Included in this directory is an Independent Living Checklist for that purpose, to be used by case managers and supports coordinators, family members, home staff and individuals with disabilities themselves as well, in supporting independent living goal accomplishment at the highest possible level for each person.

Recovery

Recovery is a process of change through which individuals improve their health and wellness, live a self-directed life, and strive to reach their full potential.

FOUR MAJOR DIMENSIONS OF RECOVERY

Health: overcoming or managing one's disease(s) or symptoms—for example, abstaining from use of alcohol, illicit drugs, and non-prescribed medications if one has an addiction problem—and for everyone in recovery, making informed, healthy choices that support physical and emotional wellbeing.

Home: a stable and safe place to live.

Purpose: meaningful daily activities, such as a job, school, volunteerism, family caretaking, or creative endeavors, and the independence, income and resources to participate in society.

Community: relationships and social networks that provide support, friendship, love, and hope.
